

A short WOC summary

Written by Klaus Schgaguler

Tuesday, 23 August 2011 10:00 - Last Updated Monday, 22 August 2011 22:35

WOC 2011 in France is over. I will for sure remember it. Maybe not for my performance in the individual competitions. Huge mistakes in long distance qualification and middle distance final: not exactly what I expected. But the day of the relay was a very special one for us, even if in history it will just be a "Disqualified" for Italy. It was great to be able to run in the leading pack for a long time in a WOC relay. Looking forward to the next possibility to do so!

Thanks to all the supporters cheering for us during the entire week. It felt almost like a home championship!